

PA ABLE Savings Program

Applauds Age Expansion

Important News About ABLE Age Adjustment

The PA ABLE Savings Program provides people with disabilities the opportunity for greater control of their finances and to plan a more secure future. The ABLE Age-Adjustment Act expands access and improve the lives of additional individuals with disabilities.

The ABLE Age-Adjustment Act:

Raises the age limit for onset of a disability from 26 to 46 starting in 2026.

Expands PA ABLE eligibility to an estimated 6 million more Americans, including one million veterans.

Takes effect January 1, 2026.

The Pennsylvania ABLE Savings Program is administered by the Pennsylvania Treasury Department.
